Prefixes--Laubach 4, Lesson 23A

Prefixes are added to the front of words.

Write il on each word. It means not, but is only used with words beginning with L.

(can read ) literate		(can not read)
(lawful) legal		(not lawful)
(makes sense) logical		(no sense)
(readable writing) legible		(not readable)
Write un on these words. It r	neans not.
(cut up) cut		_ (not cut up)
(can do) allowed		(not allowed)
(funny) amusing		(not funny)
Write in on these words. In s	ometimes means not.
(right for people) justice	(not right)
(living) organic	-	(not living)
(normal) sane		(not normal!)

Write re on these words. Re m	neans back or again.
(look around) turn	(go back)
(look at) check	(check again)
(vote for) elect	(elect again)
(fix up) decorate	(fix up again)
Write inter on these words. In (about a nation) national	(among nations)
(about a person) personal	(among persons)
(a person's race) racial	(among races)
(about a school) scholastic	(between schools